There is a single secret ballot for the several degrees of a Chapter.

46.4 Two Black Balls

No candidate is admitted nor is a member received by affiliation if, on the ballot being taken, two black balls appear against him. A Chapter may however, by its bylaws, specify that one black ball is sufficient for rejection.

46.4.1 Clear

If less black balls appear in the ballot than are required for rejection, then the First Principal declares the ballot 'clear' and the applicant elected.

46.4.2 Dark

If enough black balls for rejection, normally two or more, appear in the first ballot then the First Principal orders the ballot destroyed without comment. The ballot is repeated immediately, to correct a possible mistake, and this ballot is final.

46.5 Silence

After one ballot has been held no discussion is permitted before a second ballot is taken.

46.6 Unfavourable Ballot

If a ballot or vote upon an application for exaltation, affiliation or reinstatement is unfavourable, the First Principal immediately causes the proclamation (Form 19 - Proclamation on Secrecy) on secrecy of the ballot to be read aloud.

46.7 Secrecy of Ballot

46.7.1 Disclosure

If any ballot or vote upon an application for exaltation, affiliation or reinstatement is unfavourable or if a companion is disciplined, it is required that no companion or visitor present disclose the result improperly.

46.7.2 Penalty

For a first offense the penalty is censure in open Chapter. For a second offense the penalty is suspension and deprivation of Royal Arch privileges. A visitor guilty of this conduct will not be allowed to visit again, and may not apply for membership.

46.7.3 Suspension May Be Lifted

When a full and satisfactory statement is made to the Chapter, the suspension of a member may be lifted or the privileges of a visitor restored.

47 OBJECTION TO ADVANCEMENT

47.1 Charges

If objection is made to the advancement of a candidate after he has received one or more of the degrees, it is the duty of the First Principal to require the member making the objection to file written charges forthwith.

47.2 No Charges

If the member making the objection does not file charges and specifications within thirty days, then the Chapter may proceed to confer the degrees upon the candidate as if no charges had been made.

47.3 Investigation

The Chapter, as soon as practicable, shall proceed to investigate the charges.

47.4 Unproven

If the charges are not proven, the degrees are conferred upon the candidate as if no charges had been made.

47.5 Proven

If the charges are proven, then the candidate is rejected, and shall not apply again within twelve months from the time of rejection, nor at any time to any other than the Chapter rejecting him, without the unanimous consent of the rejecting Chapter.

48 OTHER CHAPTER REGULATIONS

48.1 Register

Each Chapter keeps a book or books, in which are registered the names of members installed as First Principal, Second Principal and Third Principal, and the names of other officers of the Chapter. In these books is kept a list of the members giving the name, date of birth, mother Lodge, present Lodge, date of receiving Mark Master Mason, Most Excellent Master and Royal Arch degrees. 48.4 Book of Marks

Each Lodge of Mark Master Masons keeps a Book of Marks in which is kept a copy of the marks selected by the brethren before their exaltation. This book is in the custody of the Scribe Ezra. All marks must be properly composed of straight lines or combinations of lines, in the form of squares, angles, triangles, or any other form in which straight lines can be combined. A mark composed of an elaborate design such as a crest or coat-of-arms is prohibited.

48.5 Disposal of Property

No portion of the furniture, jewels or other property of a Chapter shall be sold, alienated, or in any way disposed of unless approved by the vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting.
